

26 Spring Street BELMONT VIC

3 1 1

An outstanding opportunity arises such as this to restore a grand Victorian home to its former glory.

Steeped in history and built circa 1864 this property is considered to be one of the oldest homes in Belmont and originally formed part of the vineyard precinct of the time. Set high on the hill on approx 1250sqm of established gardens this home represents a unique restoration project for the true renovator with the vision to realise its full potential. It boasts high ceilings and original features such as iron lacework, ceiling roses, wide timber floorboards, four chimneys and a bluestone cellar in the kitchen. Well located to shopping, schools, sports grounds and with easy access to the Surfcoast Highway and the Ring Road is sure to have broad appeal.
