

7 McDonald Street EAST GEELONG VIC

3 1

This rare single-fronted character home is situated in the heart of East Geelong and is full of charm. Here is your opportunity to secure a three bedroom weatherboard home with period features including high ceilings, beautiful timber floors throughout and lead light windows. Featuring three bedrooms, the main with his & hers built in robes and includes access to a two-way bathroom with claw bath and separate shower, kitchen with gas cooking, a service window to the dining area, timber walls and a fireplace being remnants of yesteryear. A fantastic large open living space is the heart of the home, the third bedroom is an optional second living area, double doors from the living open to a north facing backyard that's private and boasts an abundantly fruitful apricot tree. A double gate provides rear access via a neighbouring lane. Close to the Garden
