

15 Elcho Street NEWTOWN VIC

3 1

Located only a short walk from the beautiful Barwon River is this brick veneer home with huge potential. Set on a large 854sqm block (approx), this home would suit a young family looking to renovate and extend or developers looking for their next project. Featuring three bedrooms, all with built-in robes, polished timber floors throughout, a lounge with an open fireplace, a light filled dining room with double door that opens to the outside patio, a central kitchen with electric upright oven and dishwasher, bathroom with shower over bath and separate w/c. The patio would be ideal for entertaining and overlooks the sizeable backyard, which is a great space for the kids to play. Off street parking is also included.

With walking distance to the local kindergarten, parks and the Colleges of Newtown, everything is at your fingertips.
