

5 Leila Crescent Bell Post Hill VIC

4 3 2

Set high on the hill this substantial family home has a lot to offer the growing family and all within easy access of the ring road for commuters. The home has some impressive features including a sunken formal lounge and separate dining room which leads to a large kitchen overlooking a family/meals area with soaring cathedral ceilings. This area overlooks a great undercover entertaining area and sizeable backyard complete with fruit trees and garden shed. There are three bathrooms in all servicing the four generous bedrooms, which all have BIR's and the master with ensuite. A remote-controlled double garage leads to a huge storage room and a separate workshop which adjoins another storage room and a semi-detached kitchen, which is just perfect for wine bottling, making jams, preserves, home cured meats and the like. This is a home that has
