A flexible floorplan is the key to this fabulous home that has lots of natural light and boasts beautiful polished hardwood floors throughout. Ample living space provides generous areas for the family to relax in and enjoy their own activities. There are French doors that open from most rooms to provide a seamless connection between the inside and the outdoors. Upstairs there are three double bedrooms, including the master with ensuite & WIR, a teenager's retreat and a family bathroom with a corner spa. The spacious 2 car garage doubles as a studio, or workspace, if required, whilst the downstairs study is ideal for those working from home as there is a separate access from the adjoining court. If you have been searching for more space for the growing family this home caters perfectly for those who require more living space with the
