

1985 Ballan Road Anakie VIC

This former Presbyterian church is set on over an acre (4045m²) and is located within convenient commuting distance of Melbourne and Geelong. Comprising the original blue stone chapel with high timber ceilings and walls, leadlight windows, vestibule, separate community hall with kitchen facilities, established gum trees and loads of room for further improvement. Some of the possibilities include converting to a residence, B & B or gallery (all subject to council approval), close to the Brisbane Ranges, Anakie Gorge, You Yangs reserve and local wineries.
