

154A Aberdeen Street Geelong West VIC

2 1 1

Seize this exciting opportunity to purchase a solidly built red brick home which is ideal for the home owner looking to break into the Geelong West market. This attractive Art Deco inspired home is centrally located to schools, shopping, transport and medical facilities. Located on the fringe of the city between Shannon Avenue and the vibrant Pako shopping strips convenience is paramount with the Geelong train station nearby for commuters. The home comprises two large bedrooms, both with built in robes, a well-lit living room with ornate cornice and a decorative ceiling panel with a R/C air conditioner, whilst highly polished hardwood floors lead to the updated kitchen/meals area and a generous family bathroom. Outside there is a deck overlooking a good sized North facing backyard for children and pets to play with easy rear access to a carport
