

11 William Street Newtown VIC

4 2 2

Step through the original home's welcoming entry and discover timeless character that leads to a breathtaking transformation: from the kitchen onwards the house is newly built, elegantly separated from the existing home by a stunning barn door that creates a dramatic, private transition between old and new. The new wing centres on a gourmet kitchen with a clever butler's pantry including a servery window, and flows into spacious, light-filled living and lounge areas - ideal for family life and effortless entertaining.

Four generous bedrooms provide comfortable family accommodation, including a main suite with a walk-in robe, and built-in robes throughout, while a large versatile studio offers the perfect home office, art space, or a teen retreat.
